LEARN & LIVE

This week's Word of the Week comes from Ephesians 4, verse 7, says, "However,

He has given each one of us a special gift through the generosity of Christ."

Now, if you look in the references of this scripture, certainly in the Bible that I'm reading, it says that that special gift is grace. Now, grace is an undeserved favour. Now, there might be a lot of times where we might make mistakes, we might do things, we might be in a difficult circumstances where we don't feel like we deserve any of God's favour, any of God's presence, any of the gifts that come has given us, but ultimately it's undeserved favour. So know that God wants you to have his love, he wants you to have his grace, he wants you to have his kindness, all the things that his presence brings. No matter what you're feeling about yourself, no matter what you're feeling about your circumstances, he wants you to have that favour. He is working for you, he's working with you, he wants you to come through it. So don't wallow in the feelings of feeling like you don't deserve anything that God has given you. Ultimately, it doesn't matter whether we deserve it or not. He gives you his favour, he gives you his presence, and ultimately, he gives you that gift of grace. So you can choose to accept that today.
